About the Keynote Speaker

Jeffrey A. Dennis

Senior Pastor

Mount Calvary Baptist Church

Jeffrey Dennis has been in pastoral ministry for 40 years, serving 36 years as the Senior Pastor of Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Akron, Ohio. He is also the Founder and CEO of the Minority Behavioral Health Group (MBHG), a nationally accredited and state-certified mental health agency that provides culturally competent services to families throughout Summit County and Ohio. As a certified staff trainer with Leadership Dynamics and a certified grief recovery specialist with the Grief Recovery Institute, he has dedicated his life to fostering mental and emotional wellness within the community.

In addition to his leadership at MBHG, he has founded several impactful initiatives, including the Pastors Project, Project AGAPE, and the Akron Unity Partnership, all of which focus on empowering communities through education, economic development, and collaboration. His passion for building strategic partnerships has earned him national recognition. He has been invited to present at the White House, the U.S. Department of Education, and the Hudson Institute's Faith in Community Initiative, where he spoke on the growing impact of faith-based organizations in government partnerships.

Pastor Dennis was recognized with the 2018 County of Summit Trailblazer Award (Drs. Fred & Penny Friese Award) and has received numerous honors from Presidents Bush and Obama, governors, mayors, and other civic leaders.

He holds a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Theology and a Doctorate in Mental Health Administration. He is married, with three adult children and eight wonderful grandchildren. His work reflects a deep commitment to compassion, community empowerment, and faith-based leadership.

About the Guest Speaker

Shianne Eagleheart

Executive Director & Founder

The Red Bird Center, Inc.

Shianne Eagleheart is a Licensed Independent Counselor and Internationally Certified Clinical Supervisor, Native American Ceremonial Leader, Professional Trainer, Ordained Minister, and the Executive Director and Founder of The Red Bird Center, Inc.

The Red Bird Center is a non-profit, Multicultural Healing Center located in Ohio. The Center provides opportunities for healing, education, and community celebration. The Red Bird Center is also active in Restorative Justice, promoting a healing model to effectively respond to crime in America and support the development of safer communities.

Shianne has extensive clinical experience in the treatment of adult and adolescent abuse survivors as it relates to chemical dependency, PTSD, dissociative disorders, re-victimization and violent offending. She is a multiple trauma survivor who has achieved both personal and professional success in healing from the effects of trauma, breaking a family cycle of violence and contributing to a greater community healing. She has been working in the healing professions for the last 35 years and is active throughout the country and abroad as a keynote presenter and retreat provider.

Shianne wrote "The Wounded Bear" in response to the violence and heartbreak she has witness first hand in her community. She shares this Medicine Story with the intent to promote healing. The Wounded Bear speaks directly to issues related to violence prevention, trauma recovery, and healing of the human spirit. This program is being presented in schools, universities, Veteran's organizations, multicultural events, woman's programs, Native American / Aboriginal professional training conferences, mental health programs, hospitals, churches, international professional training conferences, social service agencies, correctional programs for both youth and adults.
