ADVOCACY

After addressing a victim's acute crisis in person or via hotline, advocates follow up with victims within 24 to 48 hours to check in, reassess safety, and offer additional services. Advocates offer to meet with victims at home, in a VAP office, or any other location where the victim feels safe and comfortable. By providing follow up services to victims after an immediate crisis, advocates empower clients to establish a plan of action (also known as a case plan) to assist victims in addressing the impact trauma has, or may have, on their life or their families' lives which may include referring clients to agencies outside of our scope of service. If criminal charges are filed, advocates will walk alongside victims through all phases of the criminal justice process, from the

EDUCATION

To ensure victims are receiving comprehensive services, advocates undergo extensive training. An emphasis on education prepares advocates to be equipped with the necessary knowledge and skills to utilize best practice techniques in order to serve victims to the fullest extent.

Victim Assistance Program provides ongoing education to staff, volunteers, interns, and community professionals through our own Summit Victim Assistance Academy. The Academy currently offers 1 in house course, The Essentials, which is the only nationally approved, comprehensive online and in-person training of its kind offered in the state.
